2. Sharing and selling of personal information and targeted advertising

We do not sell or share information considered to be “sensitive personal information” for marketing or advertising purposes. We do not sell or share any personal information that we know to belong to consumers under age 18.

3. Your privacy rights

Access, correction, and deletion

Subject to certain exceptions and limitations found in the relevant laws, you have access, correction, and deletion rights.

You have a right to request details about the information we have collected about you and how such information is used and disclosed. You also have a right to obtain your personal information in a format that is portable.

Depending on your state of residence, you may also have a right to ask us to correct inaccurate information, subject to the nature of the personal information collected and how it is used.

You further can request that we delete personal information that we have collected about you. We will honor your request to the extent required by applicable law and subject to certain legal exceptions, like if we need to retain information for legitimate business purposes.

To exercise your access, correction, or deletion rights please contact us through the “contact us” on.

Right to limit the use and disclosure of sensitive personal information

We do not collect or process sensitive personal information. Therefore, we do not offer such right at this time.

Appeals

There may be times when we deny your privacy requests. Depending on your state of residence, you may appeal these decisions by sending emails to the “contact us”. If you have concerns about your appeal, you may contact the attorney general of your state.

Non-discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising your privacy rights.

Authorized agents

Depending on your state of residence, you may designate an authorized agent to submit certain privacy right requests on your behalf. We may ask for proof of a designated agent’s authority and confirm that they are registered with the appropriate state authorities. In some circumstances, we may contact you to verify your identity and confirm that the agent has your permission to submit a request.

4. Notice to Nevada residents/your Nevada privacy rights

Nevada residents have the right to opt out of the sale of their Covered Information (as such term is defined under Nevada law). As noted above, we will not sell your information. However, if you are a Nevada resident, you may submit a request to opt out of future sales by sending an email to the "contact us". We will maintain your request in the event our practices change in the future. Should your email address change, please submit a new request. We reserve the right to take reasonable steps to verify your identity and the authenticity of the request.
